

NANTUCKET ISLAND RESORTS APPOINTS JASON CURTIS, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE JARED COFFIN HOUSE & THE COTTAGES AT NANTUCKET BOAT BASIN

Jason Curtis has been promoted to General Manager of Nantucket’s Jared Coffin House and The Cottages at Nantucket Boat Basin. In his new role, Jason will oversee operations as well as leadership and strategic planning for the properties. Curtis has been with Nantucket Island Resorts for more than 15 years, which was named “Top Places to Work” for the third year in a row by The Boston Globe. The hotel collection also includes The Wauwinet, White Elephant, White Elephant Village, and Nantucket Boat Basin.

During his tenure at Nantucket Island Resorts, Curtis oversaw recruiting and staff training, as well as developing custom training programs for the six properties within the company, as well as parent company, New England Development and their hospitality subsidiaries. With over 20 years of hospitality experience, Curtis also held leadership positions at Stein Eriksen Lodge in Utah and Harbor House Village on Nantucket.

“We are proud to announce Jason Curtis’ new role as General Manager,” said Khaled Hashem, Managing Director of Nantucket Island Resorts. “We look forward to having Jason take the next step in his career, and are proud of our record of promoting staff within the company.” With his extensive luxury hospitality experience, his vision and leadership will be instrumental in continuing the culture of excellence at both properties.”

Built by and named for one of Nantucket’s most prominent shipping merchants, the Jared Coffin House is the only Nantucket Island Resort property open year-round. Set on beautiful Broad Street and a prime corner of downtown, the hotel is ideal for guests looking to have immediate access to restaurants and boutiques.

Reminiscent of a seaside village, The Cottages at Nantucket Boat Basin overlook the waterfront. The Woof Cottages, reserved for those traveling with their pets offer pooches (and cats) complimentary amenities including plush beds, food and water bowls, personalized pet tags, and map of dog friendly beaches. In 2016, The Cottages at Nantucket Boat Basin was named to Condé Nast Traveler’s “Readers’ Choice Awards,” and also received USA TODAY’s “10Best Readers’ Choice Travel Award.”

For more information about Nantucket Island Resorts, visit <https://www.nantucketislandresorts.com/>.