The Wauwinet Inn Nantucket Island

The island of Nantucket in Massachusetts is a holidaymakers paradise and, for the Americans, it is a perfect refuge after a week of work or a place to relax for the whole summer. Just 48 kilometres from Cape Cod, you can get to the island by sea or air. 5 hours by car from New York and an hour and a half from Boston to get to the ferry to Nantucket or those who prefer air travel can fly from Philadelphia, Providence, Hynnis, New Bedford, Boston or Newark. A reference point for tourists and others, Wauwinet Hotel is by the north east of the island near the Great Point Wildlife Sanctuary. Built in the middle of the nineteenth century as a restaurant for the wealthy owners of summer homes, it was soon turned into a luxury resort because of its unbeatable position. Overlooking the sea, its views open up over the Pacific Ocean with a private beach and a picture postcard panorama. 32 elegantly decorated and furnished rooms in which the bywords are attention to detail, 4 cottages for a more intimate and private stay, a multiple prize-winning restaurant and a spa whose very name gets you dreaming: "Spa by the sea". In a setting like this outdoor activities are a must: lobster fishing, windsurf lessons, trekking and bicycle hire are just some of the options that the resort offers.
