■ Pack your bags! It's time to talk about honeymoons. One of the best parts about getting married (besides a lifetime of love and happiness, of course) is getting to relax for a week after the hustle and bustle of saying "I do." Skip the marathon European vacation and opt for staying in the states. Whether you're looking for a little R & R or want an adventure with your husband, this great country has a little bit of everything, for every type of couple. —Hannah Chronis

FOR THE ACTIVE COUPLE: Sedona, Arizona

WHERE TO STAY: Enchantment Resort

Enchantment Resort is nestled on 70 acres in the majestic Boynton Canyon among Sedona's red rock formations, 120 miles north of Phoenix and 114 miles south of the Grand Canyon. With more than 100 weekly activities from mountain biking to Native American solstice celebrations, you and your spouse won't be lacking for adventure. Remember, no trip to Enchantment is complete without a spa day at the celebrated Mii amo spa.

WHERE TO EAT: L'Auberge Restaurant on Oak Creek

The award-winning L'Auberge features seasonal cuisine with French influences, and there's a reason why it's one of the most popular restaurants in the state. Dishes rotate seasonally, but the restaurant always seeks out local produce while supporting sustainable farmers and fishermen.

WHAT TO DO: Pack a picnic at Crescent Moon Ranch

Load up the rental car and head 20 minutes south to Crescent Moon—the backdrop of Red Rock Crossing—to enjoy a picnic in Arizona's natural beauty. Wade in the creek, watch for wildlife, and stop by The Chapel of the Holy Cross on your way in—an architectural masterpiece jutting out of the red rocks.

FOR THE PREPPY COUPLE: Nantucket, Massachusetts

WHERE TO STAY: White Elephant

There's a certain prestige that comes with staying at the White Elephant, where generations have enjoyed the luxurious waterfront property since the 1920s. Located 40 miles off the coast of Cape Cod and within a stone's throw from Nantucket's quaint downtown, the White Elephant offers just about everything that makes the New England coast so appealing—biking, sailing, beach chairs on the Harborside Lawn, and famous ocean breezes.

WHERE TO EAT: Straight Wharf

There are two reasons Straight Wharf is popular among the locals: killer seafood and unparalleled views. Begin your meal with the restaurant's chilled watermelon gazpacho and enjoy a hearty, buttery clam bake afterward.

WHAT TO DO: Take a whale-watching excursion

Set aside one day for a six-hour whale-watching boat ride with Shearwater Excursions. Keep your eyes open for humpback and finback whales, as well as sea turtles, seals, sharks, dolphins, and more.
