Nantucket worshippers, rejoice: your favorite island just got even preppier with the opening of the Lilly Pulitzer cottage at White Elephant, one of Nantucket's chicest hotels.

The beloved brand has collaborated with the resort on a newly renovated cottage where you can spend the night in a Pulitzer-designed paradise. The Lilly Pulitzer Cottage at White Elephant is a perfect combination of Pulitzer's preppy aesthetic and White Elephant's signature luxury accommodations.

The cottage was created by the Lilly Pulitzer Design Team and draws inspiration from the brand's affinity for Palm Beach. The charming interior features bold patterns and prints, including an adorable elephant print, in a blue and white color scheme. Lilly Pulitzer accents decorate the entire space, including hand-shelled mirrors, woven baskets, and artwork made by a Lilly print artist. The one-bedroom cottage has a king-sized bed with Pratesi linens and a living space with a full-sized pullout sofa. And, it gets better: guests who stay at the cottage will receive a Lilly Pulitzer tote in a limited-edition Nantucket print.

Rates for the cottage will start at $350 per night. White Elephant and the Lilly Pulitzer Cottage will officially open for the season on April 12. Visit the White Elephant site to book a night in this preppy paradise, and take a peek inside the cottage here:
